The first stop is Abydos, a city that was once the capital of Egypt during the Old Kingdom. The most famous landmark in Abydos is the Temple of Osiris, which was built by King Seti I and completed by his son, King Ramses II. The temple is dedicated to the god Osiris, who was the god of the dead and the underworld. The walls of the temple are decorated with beautiful paintings of the gods and pharaohs, making it one of the most beautifully preserved temples in Egypt.

The lunch will be served at a local trusted restaurant. And then heading to The second stop is Dendera, a city that was once home to the Temple of Hathor, the goddess of love, joy, and music. The temple was built over a period of 1,000 years, beginning in the Ptolemaic period and ending in the Roman period.
